

	Contents
8	Introduction: Exhibiting the New Art –Teresa Gleadowe
12	‘Op Losse Schroeven’ and ‘When Attitudes Become Form’ 1969 –Christian Rattemeyer
65	‘Op Losse Schroeven (Situations and Cryptostructures), Stedelijk Museum, Amsterdam
65	List of artists
66	Museum plans
68	Installation views
106	Chronology: Tracing ‘Op Losse Schroeven (Situations and Cryptostructures)’ –Steven ten Thije
117	Catalogue cover
118	Catalogue essay: The Exhibition –Wim Beeren, 1969
127	Catalogue bibliography
129	‘When Attitudes Become Form (Works – Concepts – Processes – Situations – Information)’, Kunsthalle Bern
129	List of artists
130	Kunsthalle plans
132	Installation views
172	Chronology: How Does an Exhibition Come into Being? –Harald Szeemann, 1969
191	Catalogue cover
192	Catalogue essay: About the Exhibition –Harald Szeemann, 1969
194	Catalogue essay: Against Precedents –Charles Harrison, 1969
201	Catalogue bibliography
202	The Prodigal Maker’s Trilogy. Three Exhibitions: Bern, Amsterdam, Rotterdam –Tommaso Trini, 1969
		212	‘Op Losse Schroeven’ and ‘When Attitudes Become Form’: Public Reception in the Netherlands and Switzerland –Steven ten Thije
		220	Avant-garde Marketing: ‘When Attitudes Become Form’ and Philip Morris’s Sponsorship –Claudia Di Lecce
		230	Temporary Artistic Communities –Piero Gilardi in conversation with Francesco Manacorda
		240	Interviews with exhibiting artists:
		240	–Marinus Boezem in conversation with Steven ten Thije
		248	–Jan Dibbets in conversation with Lucy Steeds
		254	–Ger van Elk in conversation with Charles Esche and Steven ten Thije
		260	–Richard Serra in conversation with Lucy Steeds
		266	Author biographies
		270	Bibliography
		274	Picture credits for the installation views
		276	Acknowledgements
		278	Index